

Faith Ambassador Volunteer Job Description

Ascentria seeks to build sustainable relationships with faith communities so that we can work together to lift up our neighbors and strengthen our communities.

Description of Faith Ambassador with Ascentria Care Alliance:

A member of a congregation or faith group that serves and supports the mission of Ascentria, "we are called to strengthen communities by empowering people to respond to life's challenges."

A Faith Ambassador is the point person for Ascentria within their faith community.

Key Responsibilities of a Faith Ambassador:

Communicate– Share information regarding Ascentria with your faith group, keeping them up-to-date on upcoming events, partnership opportunities and Ascentria's work to empower individuals and families. Make a presentation to your group or arrange for an Ascentria representative to visit and speak about the work of Ascentria Care Alliance.

Serve – Collaborate with Ascentria staff to define and coordinate opportunities for volunteer service.

Engage – Lead your faith based organization in projects that support Ascentria's work with neighbors in need through in-kind donations or direct giving.

Faith Ambassadors are asked to serve a term of one year. Time commitment is expected to be approximately 1-2 hours/month. For more information, please contact one of our Development professionals here.

Key Benefits:

Meet other volunteers from a variety of faith based organizations, exchange ideas and experiences.

Get assistance and support from Ascentria in leading a project that will strengthen your congregation or faith group.

Become more engaged in your community.

Join us and put your faith in action!
